

2021
INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER
FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

Richard and Sabina Wurmbrand willingly suffered arrest, imprisonment and torture at the hands of first the Nazis and then the Communists who invaded their homeland. Their only “crime” was to boldly share the love and truth of Christ. They chose to give up — to lose — comfort and safety in this world in order to find a life that counted for eternity.

Today, our persecuted Christian family chooses to walk in obedience to Christ and endure harassment, brutality, imprisonment and death to advance the gospel.

We pray for our Christian brothers and sisters who have chosen to walk this path in obedience to Christ.

They, like Richard and Sabina Wurmbrand and others in scripture and throughout church history, are examples for us.

BENIN, AFRICA: DEVIL WORSHIPPER FINDS LIFE

Jean's family were devil worshippers who participated in traditional ceremonies such as worshipping Satan and placing curses on people. When an evangelist came to Jean's house to share the gospel and preached about the peace of God in Jesus, Jean placed his trust in Christ. After he became a Christian, his father tried to stab him with a knife and then tried to shoot him with a bow and arrow. Jean fled to his uncle's house, where he remained for two years until his uncle told him to leave. Jean is married and has a daughter, and they are currently staying with a Christian friend while Jean does farm work to survive.

Pray for Jean, and other persecuted Christians, that...

...as they grow in faith, their families and communities will notice the difference Jesus makes in their lives, creating an opportunity to share Christ boldly.

...as they experience persecution, they will endure it for the sake of Christ.

...as they experience new life in Christ, they will understand and rely on the power of God's presence.

May we also choose to pay any price necessary in obedience to Christ.
